

Future Leaders Programme (Manufacturing & Supply)

Registration deadline: 15th November 2015

Don't wait until the last minute! Register now!

Dear Students and Graduates

GSK Manufacturing & Supply in Poznan is a modern establishment which delivers products to 100 markets of the whole world to improve quality of life and employs almost 600 highly-skilled professionals who permanently evolve.

Do you think about your career for real? Training? Progression? Rewards? If your answer for these questions is YES, Fundacja Rozwoju Talentów and GSK are glad to invite you to the Future Leaders Programme Global Manufacturing & Supply. It is a unique programme of development for exceptional students and graduates.

Programme overview

We offer an internship in one of three departments:

- Engineering Department
- Quality Department
- Production Department

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for young, ambitious students and graduates who:

- have finished at least the third year of study or have graduated from the following faculties: pharmacy, chemistry, biology, biotechnology, economics, management, engineering management, mechanical engineering, automation, automatic control engineering and robotics, electro-mechanical engineering, production management or similar
- have desire to develop a career in manufacturing within the pharmaceutical industry
- have very good command of English and fluent Polish
- have ambition and passion for continuous learning and new challenges
- search for non-standard solutions and challenge status quo
- have excellent interpersonal and communication skills
- are teamwork-oriented and proactive
- demonstrate strong analytical skills

What we offer?

- 2-year paid internship
- a fast-track development programme, working your way towards an independent role
- several assignments in various business areas, which may include production, technology, product, transfer, engineering, quality, supply chain
- working in a number of projects, you'll develop a broad business perspective and gain valuable industrial experience
- flexible work arrangements
- friendly atmosphere
- plenty of benefits

How to register?

- go to the website: rekrutacja.FundacjaRozwojuTalentow.pl
- choose: Stażysta Future Leaders Programme (Manufacturing & Supply)
- fill in a short questionnaire
- we will redirect you to GSK website, where you will in a questionnaire, include your CV and cover letter